Rule Changes and Additions from the September Meeting

- RULE ADDITION: Performers must wear protective footwear at a show site except when entering on and exiting off the performance area and warm up area. Any unit not doing so will be subject to a verbal warning. Upon repeated or egregious violation, an organization may no longer be considered in good standing subject to the enforcement of its region EBOD.
- RULE ADDITION: Performance order at all contests will be randomized utilizing the randomization tool in Competition Suite.
- RULE ADDITION: Registered units will be automatically entered into their event by the Competition Suite program, Contest Coordinators will selected the “randomize” button one time to create the order of performance for each contest.
- RULE ADDITION: If a unit is reclassified at a previous contest and the schedule has already been posted, that unit will perform first in the upcoming contest, but will be randomized with the remaining units in their class at the following contest.
- RULE ADDITION: All Independent units must provide proof of insurance, both general liability ($1,000,000) and accidental medical ($10,000) and must be postmarked or sent electronically to the AIA Color Guard or Percussion Coordinator (for Percussion and Winds) for its region on or before January 15. Units will not be able to perform without this on file.
- RULE ADDITION: Percussion units competing in the WGI circuit, must compete under the same classification at AIA Contests.
- RULE CHANGE: Percussion and Wind Entries will have a single clinic judge for the first two contests of the season. This is a change from just the first show of the season from last year.
- All promotions will be termed as reclassification. There will be no promotion medals awarded. You will be recognized at the next award ceremony however.
