2019 Season Newsletter

Week of 1/20/19 – 1/26/19

THE SEASON IS UPON US! THIS WEEKEND AIA IS AT CUMBERLAND HS!

REMINDERS

- Do not forget that you need to get proper copyright for your show needs to be acquired and that you need to fill out a copyright form for AIA. This form can be found on the AIA website under the Events tab and then “2019 Events” and then “Copyright Letter”
- Fill out your spiel sheet for announcers for shows. This form can be found on the AIA website under the Events tab then “2019 Events” and then “Announcer Spiel Sheet”
- If you are an independent group, you must complete the insurance information form to turn into AIA. This can be found on the AIA website under the Events tab then “2019 Events” and then “Insurance Upload”
- Guard groups – you can upload your music to CompetitionSuite, but you are still required to have backup copies in the event of technical malfunctions
- If you would like to sign up for critique for your shows, make sure you sign up in CompetitionSuite when the critique signup goes live.
- If you are curious about whether a show is guard or percussion first, please check on the AIA website on the event page to see show order. It will either say “Guard/Percussion” or “Percussion/Guard”

REGISTRATION

- Please don’t forget that membership registration closes February 1st.
- Shows close 4 weeks before the scheduled show day so that schedules can be made.
- After a show schedule is posted, there is a penalty for dropping out of a show or changing a show schedule.
- If you are currently on the Waitlist for a show, consider signing up for a different show with space.
- Please don’t forget that if you are a scholastic group you cannot have members from more than one school division.

SHOW REMINDERS

- Credential Reminder – 1 AIA credential is issued to each unit. If you require more, additional credentials can be purchased.
- Warm-Up Time: You will be given a 1-minute warning to the end of your warm-up time, you MUST be out by the end of that minute.
- All attempts will be made to not change an even schedule after the Tuesday before the event.

Schedules can always be updated until the day of the event, but all attempts will be to not change them.

- If your school system closes and you cannot travel to your schedules show, please get a letter from your administration and send that to your regions EBOD and if possible, please try to contact us ahead of time.

AIA North! For your planning purposes we are announcing that Championships will be moving to a new location!

We are pleased to announce that in 2020, AIA North Championships will take place at the Hampton Coliseum!
